1. I have spoken with Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, who was most willing to come to CIA for a debriefing on her recent trip to the Soviet Union. She will let me know as soon as she has some notes in order. Mrs. Smith said she was particularly glad that she had visited Spain, as it had given her a new insight into that problem.

2. Mr. Amory, DD/I, informs me that we do not have anyone available to accompany the Joint Congressional Committee on [redacted] on its forthcoming trip to [redacted]
